Co-op Solutions disclaimer statement

Thank you for your interest in Co-op Solutions.

While we encourage you to explore job opportunities at Co-op Solutions, we also urge you to be cautious and wary of recruitment scams in which fraudsters pretend to represent prominent companies.

Applicants may be invited to participate in fraudulent interviews, asked to fill out fabricated employment applications and, on occasion, have been issued fake offer letters, all with the goal of trying to entice victims to pay money or provide sensitive personal information.

Please be cautious to the points below as you continue your job search:

Communications

- Unsolicited communications from an individual or websites with which you are unfamiliar, or whose domain name is inconsistent with the actual business name of Co-op Solutions.
- Correspondence from free e-mail accounts like Yahoo, Hotmail or Gmail.
- Communications that do not include information about a specific job opening (or the job description is vague) and/or extend a job offer without an interview.
- Communications at the application phase requesting sensitive personal data or information, such as your national identification number, date of birth, social security number, national insurance number, bank account information, passport information or any number appearing on identity documents.

Interviews

- Co-op Solutions only conducts interviews via MS Team and Phone Interviews.

General

- Requests from Co-op Solutions for monetary payments at any point in the hiring process.
- Any payments made by Co-op Solutions will be from an official Co-op Solutions account bearing the Co-op Solutions (CU Cooperative) name. Do not trust checks from any other source.
- Job opportunities that come from people you do not know and appear "too good to be true".
