MALE IN BROWN SHIRT: I think Whole Foods from the beginning of the company has been a place where authenticity is explored.

00:00:15

MALE IN WHITE AND BLACK HAT: Everyday, it's always a question of how are you doing. You personally. How's your day going?

00:00:20

MALE IN RED PLAID SHIRT: I think that's what really makes it special is that we have actual conversations about life.

00:00:25

FEMALE IN GREY SHIRT: How was your day? Did you cook today? What did you cook? Have you bought some new perfume? You smell different right now. Like yeah. You notice, huh?

00:00:31

MALE IN WHITE AND BLACK HAT: And then it just kinda builds from there, you know. Like whatever else you need. I need this or I need that. There's always a simple solution and it's, it's really about the team member.

00:00:39

MALE IN CHEF'S HAT: That's what I love about Whole Foods is it's about a whole team.

00:00:42

MALE IN STRIPED SHIRT: This is what I like about this company. You have a chance to express and be yourself.

00:00:48

FEMALE IN JEANS SHIRT: I love the people that I work with. I laugh a lot. I work hard and I'm surrounded by team members who do the same. Everyone cares. Everyone still has a purpose here and it makes me comfortable and knowing that I'm doing my job but I'm also, they're helping me. They have my back.

00:01:03

MALE IN WHITE AND BLACK HAT: No matter how busy we are, how things are going, someone's always there to help you.

00:01:07

MALE IN STRIPED SHIRT: Somebody right next your side and it feels good to have somebody right next to your side, you know what I mean?

00:01:18

FEMALE IN BLACK SHIRT: We're moms. We're dads. We're sisters. We're aunts. We're like people, people. We come from all kinds of backgrounds.

00:01:25

MALE: And you feel like there's definite value in what you're doing. It, it's, it's nice to have that.

00:01:30

MALE IN BLACK HOODIE: I'm a happy person. I love being around happy people who wanna have a happy life and a healthy life. [LAUGHS]

00:01:36

MALE IN BROWN SHIRT: You know, I get to go do what I feel that I'm good at.

00:01:40

MALE IN WHITE AND BLACK HAT: You become a team and you become something bigger than you can ever imagine and as much as you put in, you get everything back.

00:01:48

MALE IN BLACK GRAPHIC SHIRT: So creating that kinda culture and just making people feel wanted here and, and showing that we care is really, really what it's all about.

00:01:56

FEMALE IN GREY SHIRT: I can say, it's a great place to work.
